Research Interests

I am PhD student at University of Grenoble (Université Pierre Mendès France, Grenoble, France), under the direction of Sylvie Pesty. I am member of MAGMA team of the Laboratoire d'Informatique de Grenoble (LIG).

My research is about studying language modality in Embodied Conversational Agent (ECA), more specifically his role in complex emotions expression. We discuss the need to define an agent conversational language which takes into account the essential role of emotion in human communication. My thesis is part of ANR Project CECIL (Complex Emotions in Communication, Interaction and Language).
